Liturgical Guide for Sunday, March 17, 2017

ON THIS DAY, THE THIRD SUNDAY OF GREAT AND HOLY LENT, WE CALL TO MIND THE VENERATION OF THE HOLY, PRECIOUS, AND LIFE-GIVING CROSS. ON THIS DAY WE ALSO COMMEMORATE Holy Martyrs Chrysanthus and Daria and St. Demetrios the New Martyr. Through their holy intercessions, O God, have mercy on us and save us. Amen.

Welcome, Visitors and Newcomers, to our Parish!

We invite you to enter your name, mail/email addresses in our Guest Register (near the entrance) if you are interested in joining and assisting with our mission's development. We want to keep you informed of our schedule and location of services. You and your family are welcome; we look forward to knowing you. We invite you and your family to join and assist us often!

Please consider that only baptized and chrismated Orthodox Christians in canonical good standing may approach for Holy Communion. All are invited to partake of the Antidoron ("instead of the gifts") distributed at the conclusion of today's Divine Liturgy.

TODAY's Spiritual Theme From the Triodion:

At this mid-point in Lent, the Church turns to the Holy Cross of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Like a Rod of Moses in the midst of the Camp, it helps us find health, strength, and courage to pursue the remainder of our Lenten journey. "For the Cross is called the Tree of Life, it is the tree that was planted in Paradise, and for this reason our fathers have planted it in the midst of Holy Lent, remembering both Adam's bliss and how he was deprived of it, remembering also that partaking of this tree we no longer die but are kept alive..." (Synaxarion of the Sunday of the Cross)

The Service of the Veneration of the Cross is traditionally offered during the singing of The Great Doxology concluding the Sunday Orthros Service on the Third Sunday of Great and Holy Lent. However, in recent years, pastoral considerations conceding the absence of most of the faithful at the end of the Orthros Service (and at the beginning of the Divine Liturgy) has caused this service often to be transposed to the end of the Divine Liturgy, where its meaning has less impact to the faithful who are preparing to depart from the church.

So that we can be reminded throughout all of today's Divine Liturgy of our Lord's Precious and Holy Cross that brings us new life and renewal, (as announced last week) we will once again this year return to the more traditional practice of beginning this service after the Choir has almost completed singing the Great Doxology. After it has sung the verse, "Extend O Lord, Your mercy unto those who know You," the Choir begins to chant the Asmatic "Holy God, Holy Mighty..." of the Great Doxology, slowly and melodiously. Please be prepared to sing Hymns #1 and #7 below as Fr. George directs following the Procession of the Holy Cross.

SPECIAL HYMNS SUNG BEFORE/AFTER SMALL ENTRANCE

1./2./4./10. Hymn for Feast of the Holy Cross – (Hymnal-pp.180-181):

This hymn, "Save, O Lord" – is sung after the Doxology (in Service of the Veneration of the Holy Cross) and before and after the Small Entrance, and at the end of the service instead of "We have seen the light". It is sung during today's Veneration of the Holy Cross on the Third Sunday of Great Lent and also on September 14th – the Feast of the Elevation of the Holy Cross. Save, O Lord Your people and bless Your inheritance. Give victory to those who battle evil and protect us all by Your Holy Cross.

3. Resurrectional Hymn (Plagal of the Second Tone) – (Hymnal-pp.118-121):

It is sung before and after the Small Entrance: The angelic powers appeared at Your tomb, the soldiers guarding it became as dead men, and Mary stood at Your grave seeking Your most pure body. But You made hell a captive; You were untouched by its might. You came to the Virgin and granted life. O Lord, Who rose from the dead, glory to You.

5. Hymn Commemorating St. Christopher – (see music distributed):

It is sung after the Small Entrance: Made comely with garments woven from your venerable blood, you stand before the Lord, the King of Heaven and earth, O famed Martyr Christopher. With the choirs of Angels and the Martyrs you chant, singing the thrice-holy hymn and most awesome praises. Thus, by your intercessions with God, save us, your servants.

6. Kontakion sung for Lenten Sundays – (Hymnal-pp. 268-271):

It is sung after the Small Entrance: Victorious Lady, mighty champion, defending us, we your servants now inscribe to you this hymn of thanks, for you rescued us from suffering and tribulation. Theotokos, with your power that can never fail, keep us safe from every danger our whole life long that we may cry to you: Rejoice, O Bride unwedded.

7. Trisagion Hymn for Feast of the Holy Cross – (Hymnal-pp.290-291):

Instead of singing the Trisagion Hymn on pgs.38-41, we sing this hymn. It is also sung during today's Veneration of the Holy Cross on the Third Sunday of Great Lent as well as on September 14th – the Feast of the Elevation of the Holy Cross. Before Your Cross we bow down, O Master, and we glorify Your Holy Resurrection. Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

8. Megalynarion (Hymn to the Theotokos) – (Hymnal-pp. 298-301)::

On the first five Sundays of Great Lent when we use the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil, a different hymn is sung instead of "Axion Estin" or "Truly it is proper to call you blessed...": In you, O woman full of grace, all creation rejoices, the orders of angels and the race of mankind. O hallowed temple and spiritual paradise, glory of virginal souls, from you our God was incarnate and became a child, He who is God from all ages. By making your womb His throne He made you more spacious than all the heavens. In you, O woman full of grace all creation rejoices. Glory to you.

9. Communion Hymn – (Hymnal-p.325):

For today's Feast of the Holy Cross, we sing the following: Let the light of Your face shine on us, O Lord. Alleluia. [Psalm 4]

SCRIPTURAL PASSAGES FROM TODAY'S ORTHROS & DIVINE LITURGY

The Scriptures were not given us for this only, that we might have them in books, but that we might engrave them on our hearts. – St. John Chrysostom

Gospel Reading During Orthros Service (Luke 24:36-53)

While they were talking about this, Jesus Himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at My hands and My feet; see that it is I Myself. Touch Me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, He said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave Him a piece of broiled fish, and He took it and ate in their presence. Then He said to them, "These are My words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about Me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then He opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and He said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high." Then He led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up His hands, He blessed them. While He was blessing them, He withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

Epistle Reading (Hebrews 4:14-5:6):

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten You" as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek."

Gospel Reading (Mark 8:34-9:1):

He called the crowd with His disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become My followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow Me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for My sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His father with the holy angels.” And He said to them, “Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see that the kingdom of God has come with power.”

THIS WEEK’S MEMORY VERSE (TRY TO COMMIT TO MEMORY):

“May I never boast of anything except the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.” (Galatians 6:14)

PASTORAL REFLECTION FROM FR. GEORGE:

Many years ago, The Los Angeles Times carried a touching story about an 80 year-old man who entered into an agreement with three young couples who were renting apartments in his building. He agreed to allow them to buy their apartments at a very low rate.

Please do not misunderstand. This was not your typical condominium conversion. He was selling them their apartments at a much lower rate than they could obtain them on the open market. This was his gift to these six young people who had been there when he needed them.

The elderly man’s wife of fifty years had been dying of cancer. For much of that time she was beyond help and pain relievers. Nights were the worst. When her cries of pain tore him apart, all her husband could do was to bang on the apartment wall for support. One of the young couples would be at his door instantly to help her in any way they could, and to ease her husband’s burden.

They entered into the older couple's agony. "Two o'clock, three o'clock in the morning, they were there in a minute," recalled the elderly man. "You don't find that in a human being anymore." Fortunately for him, he found it in these six young people.

It is a beautiful thing when one human being is willing to enter into another human being's agony. But there is something more special still – that is when the Lord of all creation comes into the world to share in His children's agony. This Sunday, when we offer special veneration to the Precious Cross of our Lord, may we recall St. Paul's words: "May I never boast of anything, except the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ . . ." (Gal. 6:14)
