

GOYA OUTING – January 20, 2013

Following church services, Fr. George, Presbyteria Marinda, Jeanie, Lydia, and George joined our Goyans and their friends for a great lunch at Steak & Shake Restaurant in Newnan, GA.

Afterwards, we participated in "glow in the dark" bowling. Each of the photos with just one person records the "STRIKE" that was just bowled. The one with two bowlers indicates they bowled "two strikes in a row!"

Before leaving, Goyans and Advisors planned the upcoming GOYA Luncheon planned for Sunday, February 3, 2013, following our General Parish Assembly, chaired by John Soulakos. We hope you will join us!

What a great afternoon of sharing lunch together, exchanging one-on-one fellowship, and experiencing team building. While each of us admits getting embarrassed when we bowled our share of "gutter balls", we overcame and continued to have "loads of fun" and celebrated when each and all of us finally achieved that coveted strike... thanks to our mutual encouragement, good sportsmanship, and a keen desire to give of ourselves as our Lord taught us:

"If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus..." (Philippians 2:1-5)

Special thanks to Lydia McGee for sharing her photos!
